

"And you can rest assured that your problem is being ignored at the very highest levels."

“ . . . there are associations out there whose Board members operate in secrecy, give themselves and their friends preferential treatment, award maintenance contracts to their friends, and hound unit owners who challenge them.”

From an article in the Hartford Courant (3/2/08) by George Gombossy entitled “Blumenthal Pushing for More Oversight Of Condos”.